

Unknown Films is very aware that you have come to trust us as a company and as individuals you have met online and in person.

That is why it's important to us that your privacy is protected on our websites. As part of that responsibility we are committed to transparency in regards to what types of information and data is collected by our URL shortening service ufil.ms. We will be open about why it's used to create and build us into a better company for you, our customers, friends, and other users.

GENERAL USE

ufil.ms presents links that allow us to track which links are followed. Any data that is collected is limited to information provided about you by your browser. In a normal case this information is not used to identify you personally. Exceptions may occur if you use our services for illegal or spam purposes. We will cooperate with federal and state authorities and law enforcement in these situations.

Although Unknown Films cannot control what a user uses ufil.ms for, spam or ill related purposes are strictly prohibited and we will take all measures possible to stop those users from doing so. Spam users will have their links broken and IP address blocked. Bad links reported to us through our website will be investigated upon request.

If you have questions or comments about these terms and conditions of service please contact us via the email address listed below.

THANK YOU FOR USING UFIL.MS!

-Nathan Maulorico

ufil.ms

UNKNOWN FILMS LLC
©2010 UFIL.MS
INFO@UNKNOWNFILMS.COM